

UCEA's Annual Health and Safety Conference
HEI workforce health, safety and wellbeing: A strategic approach

Thursday 27 January 2022

Chair: Stuart Palmer, Former Chair of the UCEA Health & Safety Group and former UCEA Board member

PROGRAMME

- 9.45 Welcome
- 9.50 UCEA's new 4-year Health and Safety Strategy
Nicola Carter, UCEA Head of Employment Policy and Advice
- 10.00 Key Health and Safety issues for HEIs over the next 4 years
Vincent King, Chair Universities Health and Safety Association and Director of Health and Safety (Operations), University of Southampton
- 10.30 Embedding health and safety in HEI decision-making
Professor Mark Sterling, Deputy Pro Vice Chancellor (Staffing), University of Birmingham
- 11.00 Break
- 11.10 Lessons learned from Covid, to help inform future strategies
Andy Keegan, Reward, Recognition and Engagement Manager and Greg Thompson, Head of Organisational Development, Liverpool John Moores University
- 11.40 Hybrid working
UCEA's Managing Staff Return to Campus Guidance
Roshan Israni, UCEA Deputy Chief Executive
- Workforce health, safety and wellbeing issues: The experience at Aston University
Richard Billingham, Executive Director of Human Resources and Organisational Development, Aston University
- 12.15 Business resilience and continuity
Veronique Mizgailo, Business Continuity Manager, London School of Economics
- 12.45 Final questions and comments
- 13.00 Close